Brewer and Entry Information

- The entry form is going to be changed so we ask that everyone re-enter.
- Sign-up period is being extended to March 31, 2025.
- Brewers may sign up as an individual or as a team (See example entry form below):
 - We recommend signing up as a team to avoid geographic challenges (i.e. a brewer from Seven City Brewers may be paired with a brewer from HAMS if those are the only individuals.
 - If you sign up as an individual, we will assist in pairing individuals, but cannot guarantee geographic challenges.
- Each brewer on a team MUST be in a different HRBC Club.
- A brewer may only compete on ONE team.
- Brewers must collaboratively create and brew the recipe—this means that brewers are not allowed to brew the same recipe individually, and must brew it together as one brewing process.
 - While we obviously can't track this, we leave this to the honor system that you will do it as required.
- Brewers MUST submit the recipe by Sunday, November 16, 2025. This will be considered your entry and can be emailed to thebrewerscup@gmail.com:
 - Please put “HRBC Collaboration 2025 Entry” in the subject line.
 - Please include the name of each brewer and respective club,
 - The beer style with any special instructions,
 - The beer recipe,
 - Any unusual brewing steps or equipment/processes used,
 - And any interesting challenges you faced and how you overcame them.

Bottle Submission

Bottle submission is the same as in the current Competition Rules (https://brewers-cup.com/#hrbc_rules)

Judging

Judging is the same as in the current Competition Rules (https://brewers-cup.com/#hrbc_rules)

Scoring and Points

Scoring and Points is the same as in the current Competition Rules (https://brewers-cup.com/#hrbc_rules) with one exception, both brewers will receive the points.
